Ya los corderitos quedan tan cansados, échenlos al hombroya viene el ganado, échenlos al hombroya viene el ganado. Caminen alegres, vamos caminando, no se desanimen ya vamos llegando, no se desanimen ya vamos llegando. Ya los horizontes se van hospedando, a pie de esos montes vamos hospedando, al pie de esos montes vamos hospedando. Dentro de esos montes, por aquellos ríos, dentro de aquella selva, un halo diviso, dentro de aquella selva, un halo diviso. Camina, Gilita, que vendrás cansada, presto llegaremos a nuestra posada, presto llegaremos a nuestra posada. Parece que ve los rayos del sol, y el pesebre donde nació el Redentor, y el pesebre donde nació el Redentor.

English Translation

Brother shepherds beloved brothers, let us pass along these roads, let us pass along these roads. Walk happily let us go walking, at the foot of those mountains let us seek shelter, at the foot of those mountains let us seek shelter. Walk, Gilita, you must be tired, at the foot of those mountains we will make camp, at the foot of those mountains we will make camp. Already the little lambs are so tired, carry them on your shoulders, here comes the flock, carry them on your shoulders, here comes the flock. Walk happily, let us go walking, do not get discouraged we are already arriving, do not get discouraged, we are already arriving. Even the horizons are taking shelter, at the foot of those mountains let us seek shelter, at the foot of those mountains let us seek shelter. Deep in those mountains, along those rivers, deep in that forest, I see a halo, deep in that forest, I see a halo. Walk,
